What lies ahead

Our 18-month European Graduate Programme offers three six-month assignments across two career paths:

Business: Gain experience across Sales & Marketing, Operations and Supply.

Finance: Gain experience across Finance and related areas, including Pricing and Sourcing.

You'll gain hands-on experience through two assignments in your home country and one abroad. After completing the programme, we'll help you find a role that matches your strengths and ambitions.

What you can expect

Real challenges: Take on assignments that help you grow.

International experience: Discover new cultures and working practices.

Personal development: Benefit from tailored training and mentoring.

Valuable connections: Build your network across Linde.

Career opportunities: Connect with senior leaders and prepare for your next career move.
